In the quiet of reflection, let imagination awaken, and creativity shine with purpose.

Subject: Invitation for submissions to the Third Edition of QCS Chronicles

Dear Students,

It is with great pleasure that we announce the forthcoming release of the Third Edition of QCS Chronicles—our much-awaited annual newsletter. This distinguished platform stands as a celebration of the imagination, intellect, and artistic excellence of our student community, and we warmly invite you to be a part of it.

Students are encouraged to submit original, self-composed works such as poems, short stories, blogs, illustrations, paintings, or any other creative expressions that reflect their unique voice and perspective. The most promising entries will be showcased in the newsletter, offering contributors the honor of being featured in this prestigious publication.

We encourage you to make the most of your winter break—let your imagination run free, play with ideas, and create original artistic and literary pieces that reflect your creativity and flair. Enjoy the process of exploring new thoughts, expressing yourself freely, and turning your ideas into something truly memorable. Let this break be both relaxing and inspiring!

We look forward to your enthusiastic participation in making this edition of QCS Chronicles a memorable one.

Regards
